

Resume and Profile

Resume/Profile

ZMG will help you collate the information and then will prepare your resume and profile. These will then be placed on our college placement site as well as sent out to our coaches' database.

The resume and profile will often be the first information the coach receives about the prospective student athlete so we will ensure that they receive all the information they need and highlight all your strong points.